FACTS

WHAT DOES DO WITH YOUR PERSONAL INFORMATION?

Why?	Financial companies choose how they share your personal information. Federal law gives consumers the right to limit some but not all sharing. Federal law also requires us to tell you how we collect, share, and protect your personal information. Please read this notice carefully to understand what we do.
What?	The types of personal information we collect and share depend on the product or service you have with us. This information can include:
	<ul> <li>Social Security number and your address, telephone number, and date of birth;</li> <li>Credit History and other information we receive from a consumer reporting agency;</li> <li>Payment History and information about your transactions with us or others.</li> </ul>
	When you are no longer our customer, we continue to share your information as described in this notice.
How?	All financial companies need to share customers' personal information to run their everyday business. In the section below, we list the reasons financial companies can share their customers' personal information; the reasons Bank of Delight chooses to share; and whether you can limit this sharing.

Reasons we can share your personal information:	Does Bank of Delight share?	Can you limit this sharing?
For our everyday business purposes— such as to process your transactions, maintain your account(s), respond to court orders and legal investigations, or report to credit bureaus	YES	NO
For our marketing purposes— to offer our products and services to you	YES	NO
For joint marketing with other financial companies	NO	We don't share
For our affiliates' everyday business purposes—information about your transactions and experiences	NO	We don't share
For our affiliates' everyday business purposes—information about your creditworthiness	NO	We don't share
For nonaffiliates to market to you	NO	We don't share

Other important information:

The Bank of Delight works hard to keep your data secure. You can help by following these tips to protect your data:

- 1. Store personal data in a safe place and tear up or shred old receipts and account statements;
- 2. Protect your PINs and other passwords. Do not share them with anyone unless it's for a service or a transaction you requested.
- 3. Do not respond to emails or phone calls requesting account numbers, passwords, or PINs. Call the institution to verify the legitimacy of the email or phone call.
- 4. Check account statements carefully to ensure all charges, checks, or withdrawals are authorized.
- 5. Guard your mail from theft. Promptly remove incoming mail.
